Designed for Seniors since 1982!

CinCyr Music Ministry & Productions

Cindy St. Cyr began performing for the senior community in 1982, under the direction of Maxine Asbury, with the Metropolitan Ballet Concert Group. The love she developed for seniors during this time inspired her to create musical productions for them by starting her own singing group in 1985, called The Reel to Real Entertainers.

In 1987, she opened CinCyr Music Ministry & Productions and continued creating shows and performing for the senior community in her own One-Woman Show. She has consistently been referred to by her audiences as an All-Around Delightful Entertainer!

Cindy has performed for more than 300 senior organizations & averages 260 performances per year. She performs for Retirement and Assisted Living Communities, Skilled Nursing Homes, and Alzheimer and Dementia Facilities as well as private parties, weddings, corporate events, other senior organizations and corporate retirement groups.

Cindy has created shows with Jazz Standards, Big Band & Swing, Hollywood Musicals & Broadway Show Tunes, Country & Western, American & Irish Folk music, Pop, Gospel, Patriotic & Christmas specials. She also has shows highlighting the careers of popular artists of jazz and film.

Clavinova Connection

In November 2006, Cindy was trained by Yamaha Corporation of America to facilitate Clavinova Connection, a recreational music & wellness program that combines beginning piano playing and scientifically proven stress reduction techniques using the Yamaha Digital Piano.

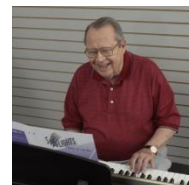

The program was designed by Yamaha Corporation, Dr. Barry Bittman, and Karl Bruhn, the Father of Music Making and Wellness Movement, to create a fun music making experience that has been scientifically proven to reduce stress.

HealthRHYTHMS

In November 2010, Cindy was trained by a world-renowned music therapist, Christine Stevens and Dr. Barry Bittman, to facilitate a recreational music & wellness program called HealthRHYTHMS. This program encourages group empowerment drumming to enhance health and wellness, stress reduction, self expression, music making, exercise, and more. This program was created by Christine Stevens, Dr. Barry Bittman, and Karl Bruhn, the Father of Music Making & Wellness Movement along with the REMO drum company.
